Description/Areas Served: Throughout the State of Texas

Services Offered: The following services are provided to support Texas families and their children and caregivers:

Pregnancy Services – Support, adoption information and counseling is provided to expectant mothers experiencing a crisis during pregnancy. Assessments help identify needs and develop a plan. Services are provided to pregnant women who are victims of a crime, have medical needs, or are not ready to parent their baby. All services to pregnant women are at no charge.

Crime Victim's Assistance Services – Services are provided to pregnant women who have been the victim of a violent crime, regardless of whether they have filed a police report or not. Services include: financial support, counseling services, referrals to services, crisis intervention, advocacy, assistance with legal and medical appointments, and follow-up support.

Children and Pregnant Women Medicaid Case Management – Referrals and connections are made to community resources to meet identified needs. Pregnant women who have high-risk pregnancies, medical needs or teen parents receive these services at no charge.

Adoption Consultations – Free consultation services are provided for Texas adoptive parents on both domestic (infant, older child, step-parent, kinship) and international adoptions, as well as help with developing an individualized adoption plan. Clients receive ongoing support for post-adoption issues.

Connecting Hearts Infant Adoption Program – Assist families in adopting newborns and toddlers. Babies are placed with families throughout the U.S. Assistance is given to families by matching them to a birth mother or help them complete a legal adoption if they know a pregnant woman who wants to place her baby or child with them.

Crystal Angels Embryo Adoption Services – Assists families in donating their frozen embryos remaining from their in vitro fertilization (IVF) treatment to families wishing to adopt these embryos, so they can build their family despite infertility or genetic problems.

Home Study Service – Assist in the preparation of home study reports and updates for domestic infant, international, waiting (older) child/out of state foster care, step-parent, grandparents/relative and embryo adoption throughout Texas.

Child Nutrition Program – A nutrition program for registered licensed child care providers who provide quality nutrition to children. Assistance is given with menu planning ideas. The program also provides nutrition education to caregivers in West Texas.

Mom’s Milk Matters – Assistance is given to child care providers and parents to encourage breast feeding and understanding the health benefits it provides.

Strengthening Families Parent Education – Conducts parent training classes and individual sessions for parents who are ordered by the court, or divorcing, or have an interest in learning more about how to parent children from birth through age 17.
